NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

MEETING AGENDA

April 18, 2006

Highlights from March 21, 2006 Meeting

William Chandler, democratic candidate for County Commission District 3, addressed the neighborhood about his agenda if elected to the County Commission.

Mr. Chandler's focus is going to be on education, healthcare, the environment, and housing. For more information you can contact him at: 704-589-2007 or visit his website: www.chandlerdistrict3.com

As a non-profit organization we do not sponsor or endorse any political candidates. If you have anyone that you feel would have topics of interest for the community meeting, please call Brian Fincher at: 704-506-8036 to discuss.

Meeting Minutes – March 21, 2006

New Business

- Guest speaker from Charlotte Fire Department
- Final plans for the Spring Festival. Volunteers to help with setting up the event need to be at the Dowd House at 8:30 am on Saturday, April 22, 2006. This is a major event and will be attended by the media and politicians. This is our chance shine.
- Thanks to Tara Laughlin, Rick Baxley, Eli Branscome and Greg Snead for helping with folding, addressing, sealing and mailing the Winter 2006 edition of the community newsletter. If you have any story ideas or would like to become involved in the Spring 2006 newsletter just let Brian Fincher or Thom Perkins know at:
704-506-8036
- For our May meeting, you are encouraged to bring a neighbor to the community meeting. We would like to have more participation from everyone within the community.
- If you are having problems with your mail delivery you can call in a complaint at: 1-800-ASK-USPS or online at www.usps.com

Community Updates

- Public Safety Report from Scott Anderson – crime overall in Charlotte is up 2.2%, but within the prostitution free zone our overall crime rate is down 14%
