CAMP GREENE

NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

MEETING AGENDA

---

March 16, 2010

Call and Send Trash Program

Remember that the city of Charlotte Sanitation Department will pick-up almost any unwanted item. All you need to do is call 311 and ask for a special pick-up. They will ask you what the items are and give you a specific day to set them on the curb. The city will take it from there.

Remember for any city services, just call 311.

If you have specific Call & Send questions, you can email Belinda Nelson at: bnelson@ci.charlotte.nc.us

Also the new recyclable containers should be arriving in June. These will be similar to the roll-out cans you currently use. This will make service more efficient and allow homeowners to recycle more since the container will be much larger.

Meeting Minutes – January 19, 2010

Community Updates

- ❖ Introduction of new Pastor Stephen Ratcliff at Christ Presbyterian Church.
- ❖ Elections postponed until March because very few from community in attendance.
- ❖ Sandra Ardrey at American Red Cross disaster services education department. She spoke of what is needed in an emergency preparedness kit. Items should include: water, non-perishable foods, first aid kit, important documents, emergency telephone numbers, money, ID, battery radio, flashlight, supplies for your pets, clothing and hygiene items. Nobody ever expects an emergency event that's why it's critical to plan ahead. Also plan where to meet just in case you get separated. For more information go to www.RedCross.org
- ❖ Call and Send questions? Contact bnelson@ci.charlotte.nc.us

Public Safety Report

- ❖ Updates at the January meeting:
  - 2 residential break-ins within the community – be on the lookout
  - Overall the crime rate in the area is down 30%.
