MEETING AGENDA

August 21, 2007

Gang of One

If you missed last month's meeting, you missed a very informative session on gangs and how to spot gang activity.

Officer Steve Parker with CMPD's organized crime unit had a slide show of gang signs and symbols. Anyone seeing spray painted walls with symbols should contact the organized crime unit at 704-432-GANG or send an email to Officer Parker at: gangintelligenceunit@cmpd.org.

Juvenile gang crimes are up 42%. Gangs are recruiting their member in middle and high school. This is when children are most vulnerable because they are looking to fit in and these gangs act like they care for them. They create a sense of belonging that children need. It's never too early to teach your children to stay away from gangs.

Meeting Minutes – July 17, 2007

New Business

- ❖ Have any ideas for the community newsletter or website? Your thoughts, comments, and suggestions are always appreciated.
- ❖ Toll house is closed for business. The new owner plans to redevelop the property.
- ❖ Volunteers needed to help install new community signs and for those that pledged money we need to collect.
- ❖ Columbus Circle task force with police and other city agencies are trying to rid the area of crime and building code violations.

Community Updates

- ❖ As promised, Officer Frison set up a license check at Camp Greene and Columbus Circle. Look for more in the area.
- ❖ Work of Charlotte Law School underway. Completion expected August 2008.
- ❖ Camp Greene Street detour for installation of storm water runoff pipes.
- ❖ Bryant Park progressing as expected. Look for roadwork to begin soon.
- ❖ Police Safety report from Officer Penix: Criminal activity in Regal Heights is priority #1 for police and code enforcement officers. Their goal is to get the slumlords to repair or demolish the substandard housing and to get tenants that are an asset to the community.
- ❖ Fall Festival & Car Show tentatively planned for September 29, 2007. Looking for ideas and a 'captain' to head-up the event.
