CAMP GREENE

NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

MEETING AGENDA

November 20, 2007

Stratford-Richardson YMCA

Byron Henson, Executive Director, addressed the association about the opening of this new facility. For those who have not visited, you should. This "Y" has an indoor pool, spas, huge fitness room, after school care, full court indoor basketball and an indoor track. This is truly a state of the art facility that addresses everyone's needs. There are programs designed for youth, teens, adults, and seniors.

While the Stratford-Richardson YMCA is one of the least expensive Y's to join, remember nobody is turned away from the YMCA for financial reasons. If you have the desire to build your mind, body, and soul, they will work with you on membership costs. For all your questions call: 704-716-4800

Meeting Minutes – October 16, 2007

Community Updates

- ❖ Work on the Charlotte Law School underway. The foundations are poured and completion expected August 2008.
- ❖ Code enforcement has demolished another house on Columbus Circle
- ❖ Community is seeking a grant to band the neighborhood oak trees to prevent blight from the canker worm epidemic.
- ❖ Bryant Park project is progressing. The developer is working with the city resolving development issues.
- ❖ Police Safety report for October 2007 – Captain Gallant has been replaced by Captain Bellamy as our division Captain. Three day prostitution sting netted 7 prostitutes in our area. Break-ins in our area are down for the year to date.
